We will depart from NYC or Boston. What airport[†] do you want to fly home to on our return? _____
[†] Must be an international airport. Direct or connecting flights home might cost extra.

Space is limited to 12: register early.

Tuition: $3,995

Minimum deposit of $1,500 due with application. Full balance due on or before March 14, 2014.

(Make all checks payable to Bard College at Simon's Rock.)

Tuition Includes: Round-trip airfare, all accommodations, daily breakfast, travel within Greece and Turkey, and all course-related tours, admission fees, and lectures; it does not include travel to or from U.S. airports, meals after breakfast ($30–40/day), books ($125–175), laundry, or spending money.

Refund Policy: The $1,500 deposit is refundable through 2/28/14. From 3/1/14 through 3/14/14, half the deposit ($750) is refundable. Starting 3/15/14, no refunds will be given.

Trip Expulsion Policy: Once abroad, any trip participant who abuses substances, or whose behavior is, in the judgment of the trip leader(s), disruptive and uncooperative, will fail the course and be immediately sent home unattended at his/her family's full expense (student account will be billed). Examples of such behavior may include (but are not limited to) any criminal activity (under local laws), drunkenness, excessive lateness/absence, unsanctioned wandering, persistent disruptive "classroom" behavior. The trip leader(s) will make every reasonable effort to contact a student's family before taking this measure.

The program director reserves the right to decline any application. Typical reasons include poor academic standing, or advisor, faculty, and/or Student Life judgment that student is not prepared for foreign travel with an academic group. The full deposit will be returned with any declined application.

To Apply: Return this form and a completed Trip Release Form to Wendy Shifrin (at the college's address) with a minimum deposit of $1,500 payable to Bard College at Simon's Rock.
